Hi Annette,

Yes, I actually was about to email you because we received the $20 check in the mail today. You, and Patti Child, are now completely registered for the event! I will be sending out more information later this week.

See you Friday!

Afternoon Alexa,

I wanted to confirm that you received two sign-up forms from Baltimore Lab School for the MAIN event on Friday. I mailed the forms to your office for Annette Fallon and Patti Child. Please let me know that you received our information. If not, I can fax or email them to you immediately.

I am looking forward to a great event!

Thanks,
Annette
